

In your final days, will you do all in your power to live a life of integrity and serve as an example for others to follow? You could meet the one, tie the knot, have a family, and climb the corporate ladder.

Are you going to do something that your parents will hate? Criminal activity, prison riot instigation, smuggling duffel bags, and adultery are all possibilities.

Your choice determines everything...

Are you ready to immerse yourself in a fascinating virtual world in bitlife – Life Simulator? Before your time on Earth comes to a close, build a clean slate for yourself and gradually improve your behavior until you are an exemplary citizen.

Develop a robust character via your encounters and relationships with loved ones, whether they be human or animal, and let your level of joy, health, intellect, and love guide your birth and upbringing. When you're an adult, do what you want: meet your soulmate, get your driver's license, live the life you've always imagined, and enjoy all the perks that come with being an adult. Strive to succeed by studying hard. Do you want to scare your parents with your irresponsible behavior or with your good judgment? You have the option to cheat on your partner, commit crimes, or even go to jail.